All Care Health Center Hires New Executive Director

All Care Health Center (ACHC) Board of Directors concluded a thorough three month search by selecting Bill Wypyski as ACHC's new Executive Director to replace Cecelia Creighton, who announced her resignation earlier this year.

Jacque Peregoy, ACHC Finance Director and Interim Executive Director, announced Bill Wypyski's acceptance of the position to ACHC staff earlier this week. Paul Kline, ACHC Board Chair, is excited about the new hire and said "ACHC Board was seeking a person with a strong background in community health center leadership and the experience to lead ACHC in its continued growth goals. We are proud to announce, we found these qualities in our newly appointed Executive Director, Bill Wypyski." Bill will begin his position at ACHC on Monday, November, 2nd.

Mr. Wypyski is an experienced community health center leader and executive director. He most recently served as President and Chief Executive Officer at Sterling Area Health Center in Sterling, Michigan. Bill has over 29 years of healthcare experience, including outpatient and hospital services. In addition, his background includes work as a healthcare administrator and social worker. He has extensive familiarity with Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) site visits and is well versed in clinical operations. Bill is "excited to join ACHC due to its community mission, engaging staff, and high quality medical, dental and ancillary services."

Bill earned a Bachelor of Science from Cornell University, a Master of Social Work from the University of Denver, a Master of Public Administration from the University of Maine and a Master of Human Services from Capella University. Additionally, Mr. Wypyski is a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives.
